

Saturday June 20th
1:30 to 5:00

3 CME Credits

Only $75

Dr Alex Vasquez: Sponsored By National University of Health Sciences

Evidence-Based Integrative Medicine

Growing a Successful Practice by Successfully Treating Common and Complex Problems

Part 1: A Foundational Health Protocol for Health Optimization and Patient Retention

1. Introduction: Certainty and Uncertainty in Nutritional Medicine: Education, Advertising, Politics, and Evidence-Based Cost-Effective Medicine
2. Medicolegal and Ethical Considerations
3. EBIM: Evidence-Based Integrative Medicine: The Merger of Common Sense, Science, and Statistical Significance
4. Foundational Health Protocol: Patient Compliance, Cost-Effectiveness, and Comparative Out-of-Pocket Expenses

Part 2: Growing a Successful Practice by Successfully Treating Common and Complex Problems

5. The Reality of Primary Care: The Most Common and Serious Disorders
6. Additional Concepts, Assessments, and Interventions in using EBIM for the Treatment of Common Complex Problems
7. EBIM: Clinical Protocols for Common Problems: Practical Office Implementation for Physician Success and Patient Satisfaction

Double Tree Hotel Oak Brook
1909 Spring Rd, Oak Brook, IL 60523
To Register Call 630-889-6701